FAIRFAX COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Instructional Services

Credit Exam for World Languages

Name:

Student ID Number:

Target Language

SAMPLE

Note: Instructions and questions will be provided in the language of the exam

Read and respond to EACH prompt below. Write TWO (2) compositions (one for each prompt). Each composition must be well-developed and include, at a minimum, three (3) paragraphs. However, you should write as much as you can to show the assessor how well you can write in your language. Attach any additional sheets to this exam copy.

1) Everyone would like to be successful in life. Describe the qualities of a successful person and explain how this affects you and the choices you make.

and

2) People sometimes debate the value of formal education. Some believe that leaving school and going to work before graduation has advantages. Others believe that success comes from staying in school. Write about how necessary you think formal education is in today's society and support your ideas with details.

Copyright © 2014 by the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages, Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, VA.
No part of this exam may be copied or reproduced without prior permission from the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages.

SAMPLE

Copyright © 2014 by the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages, Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, VA. No part of this exam may be copied or reproduced without prior permission from the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages.

SAMPLE

Copyright © 2014 by the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages, Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, VA. No part of this exam may be copied or reproduced without prior permission from the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages.

SAMPLE

Copyright © 2014 by the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages, Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, VA. No part of this exam may be copied or reproduced without prior permission from the Office of Language Acquisition and Title I, World Languages.