

Annandale Terrace

Home-School Compact for Learning

A partnership between home and school is the key to success for students. We understand our role in this partnership and believe we can make a positive impact on student achievement. Therefore, we agree to work together to insure success for all students at Annandale Terrace by doing the following:

Parent's and Family's Responsibilities

I will:

- Send my children to school regularly, on time and well rested.
- Empty backpacks every night and respond promptly to teacher's notes, school forms and notices.
- Talk with my children about school every day.
- Read with my children every day.
- Practice math facts at home.
- Monitor homework every day.
- Encourage my children to respect themselves, others, and the school.
- Attend conferences and school activities.
- Communicate with the school, using translators when necessary.

Staff's Responsibilities

I will:

- Promote a safe and welcoming environment.
- Meet students' individual needs through differentiated instruction.
- Promote a learning environment that challenges each child to think creatively and critically.
- Model and teach respect for self and others.
- Communicate frequently with families about students' progress, using translators when necessary.
- Offer families a variety of ways to help students practice reading and math skills at home.
- Participate in professional development.

Student's Responsibilities

I will:

- Respect all people, all things, and school property.
- Be honest and trustworthy.
- Obey all school and classroom rules.
- Come to school on time, prepared to learn.
- Help others learn.
- Try my hardest each day.
- Read at home every day.
- Practice math facts at home.
- Complete all homework assignments on time.
- Ask my parents to sign all papers that need to be signed.
