Choose and read a book from each category (genre). You may choose any book in the genre you'd like. When you are finished, color in the square and write the title and author on the lines provided. Return to your classroom teacher by Tuesday, September 15, 2009 for your special surprise!

Parents may read to/with our newest readers. Please take this special time to share in the wonders of books. Happy Reading!

Parents: Research demonstrates that summer reading can prevent the reading achievement losses that often occur during the break. Journal of Education for Students Placed at Risk (April, 2008).
