

Attachment Two:

You may access the website at Yamaguchy.netfirms.com/7897401/beard/Const_Index.html.

to read the copy of Beard's essay, or you can google

"Charles A. Beard: An Economic Interpretation of the Constitution."

NOTE: When you try to get into the Yamaguchy site, it will ask for a password. If you hit cancel once, and then again, the essay should pop up for you to read.

To find the answers to the questions on Attachment three, you will need to read the following from his essays.

- 1.) In Chapter five, read the biographies of Hamilton, Madison and George Mason (skip the others), and then read from footnote 269 to the end of chapter 5.
- 2.) Read Chapter Six
- 3.) Read the brief conclusion at the end of the book (2 or 3 pages).

Reading these pages will help you to answer the questions as well as prepare you for the first essay on Beard.