

Churchill Road will again be joining with the Tyson's Corner Marriott to sponsor a holiday card contest for Churchill Road Elementary students.

Interested participants are asked to design artwork that reflects the theme, “What the Winter Season Means to Me?”

- Art with color is preferred and please no pencil work.
- Art must be non-religious in nature
- Art should be designed to fit the cover of an average folded greeting card horizontally or vertically, approximately 4 7/8 inches by 6 3/4 inches.
- Deadline for entries is November 6, 2009, to the front office of Churchill Road Elementary school, attention Kathryn Manoatl. Entries should have the student name, grade level and age identified on the back of the entry.
- Winning entries to be selected by the hotel. (The Marriott will select one winner from among entries to feature on its 2009 holiday card and receive a family overnight stay and breakfast for up to four people, select second- and third-place winners of breakfast for a family of up to four (at the onsite Shula's Steakhouse), and choose a number of others to display along with the winners at the hotel throughout the holidays. All participating students will be acknowledged with a certificate of participation.)

Waiver for usage signed by parents or guardians required with submission. Contest will be announced to local media. Holiday card will be distributed to the hotel's clients and associates and local media.
