

Document	Why is the point of view important? Is the speaker, occasion, audience, purpose, and/or tone important? What does it tell you about the MEANING of the document?	How does the document help you answer the question? In what ways does the document identify and evaluate the positive and negative aspects of society ?
E
F
G

Write a thesis for the question, "Evaluate the positive and negative aspects of Roman society."

Look at all of the sources (what types of people are documented, what types of sources) used to help you answer the question. What source NOT given to you in this activity would you like to have in addition to these sources? Why would this additional source be helpful to you in answering the question?