

The goal of music education at Flint Hill Elementary School is to empower students to experience music as a source of personal enrichment, as a vehicle for the constructive expression of human emotions, and as a unique intellectual discipline. Students will develop an intellectual understanding of music through experiences in singing, moving, listening and playing instruments. They will learn to read, notate, and appreciate different musical styles and composers.