

Role of PTA

The primary role of the Floris PTA is to support the enrichment of our children. We are made up of parents, family members, teachers and administrators who are committed to delivering a school environment that nourishes the whole child.

We accomplish this very important goal by

- Fostering strong relationships between parents, teachers and the wider community.
- Organizing enrichment activities, programs, clubs and family events.
- Providing support to our teachers and staff.

The PTA provides the organizational structure and financial support for...
