

MATH CLUB - Math Club is for students selected for the Math Olympiads teams. The club meets on select Monday's after school. The students work on old Math Olympiads problems and other problem solving activities. Each problem is discussed and a variety of ways to solve the problems make the club an interesting way for students to gain confidence and practice in problem solving.