

Franconia Elementary School
PTA Meeting Minutes
05Aug08

Attendees:

Merrell Dade, Nancy Mercer, Kim Warner, Carylin Waterval, Mary Jane Alves, Beth Krause, Paula Thompson, Gwendolyn Little, and Shirley Woolsey

The meeting was called to order at 1910 by Beth Krause.

Principal's Report

The school renovation project is still on schedule. There will be a meeting on 14Aug08 at 1900 in the school library. The older historic portion of the building will not be used. The new building will look the same as the historic portion and the school will be all on one level.

President's Report

- Franconia T-shirts will be available for purchase at all PTA events. Available sizes are: youth S-L and adult S-XL. XXL sizes will be ordered.
- Currently, there are 30 students registered for the FLEX classes.

Treasurer's Report

The audit for the 2007-2008 school year has been complete and insurance for the 2008-2009 school year is almost complete.

Membership Report

As of 05Aug08, we have 92 family and 24 individual memberships.

New Business

- At the September meeting, we will discuss having 6th graders read in the gym during the fall book fair.
- Beth Krause will contact Lucky's to get a date for a family Restaurant night in October.
- The PTA is looking into having a walk/run event in combination with the Franconia History Day on.
- A tentative budget was presented and will be voted on during the September meeting.

Additional Comments

School box tops are being collected differently this year. Money for the box tops will not go directly to the teacher, but instead into a fund for a purchase of a Smartboard.

The meeting was adjourned at 2030.
