

Fall Book Review

By the Producers

Lionel In The Fall

Reviewed by Martin

This is a fun book. This chapter book, by Stephen Krensky, is stupendous. The main character named Lionel is funny and likable. I liked when he jumped in the leaves with his friend Jeffrey. It's the best book for K/1 readers. The pictures are colorful. You should buy the book!

Nuts To You

Reviewed by Sophia

The story Nuts to You by Lois Ehlert is great. You can get it at your school Library. I liked how they did the flowers. The cover is cute. I like how they gave nuts to the squirrel and nuts to you! The kids should read it to their moms and dads. You should buy it!

It's Fall

Reviewed by Marielle

This book, by Linda Glaser, is a great book. You can find it on the G shelf in your local Library. It has wonderful pictures. This is a good book for parents to read to their children! I loved the funny looking pumpkin in the book. Check it out at your local Library!

Fall Harvest

Reviewed by Sarah

This book, by Gail Saunders-Smith, is a non-fiction book. They took the real pictures and put them in the book. I liked the book because you can learn from it. Children should read it to their parents. You should get it from the Library.

Poems For Autumn

Reviewed by Katie

Poems for Autumn, selected by Robert Hull, is a great book for readers who love to read a lot. You would find it on the H shelf in the Kings Park Library. The photographs looked so real. I liked the poem called "About Caterpillars". Parents should read it to their kids if they really like fall. There are 21 poems in this book. It has lots of seasonal poems. You will love it! It's a great book!

Red Leaf, Yellow Leaf

Reviewed by Casey

This book, Lois Ehlert, is a good information book. The back of the book tells you how to plant the tree. I think this book is a very good fall book because it tells about trees and fall. I think everyone interested in Fall should read it! If someone you know has the book, you can borrow it!