

The First Winter

by Marielle, Martin and Katie

Deer: "Let's go out and play."

Bear: "Shall we go together?"

Bird: "Yes! We shall!"

Narrator: "So they did."

Deer: "Let's play tag."

Narrator: "So they did."

Bear: "I'm hungry."

Bird: "I'm too cold."

Deer: "Let's go in Bear's cave and have a snack."

Narrator: "So they went in."

Bear: "Would you like some honey?"

Bird: "No thank you. I prefer seeds."

Deer: "No thank you. I want some grass or bark."

Narrator: The three friends sat there and then Bird said"

Bird: "I'm cold, I want to fly south."

Bear: "I'm sleepy; I want to rest."

Deer: "I like it here."

Narrator: "So they decided to do their own thing."

Bear: "Good night!"

Bird: "Goodbye!"

Deer: "See you later!"

Narrator: "So they left for the winter. But, they weren't sad because they would see each other in the spring."
