"Think-Tac-Toe"

Select and complete activities from the choice board in a tic-tac-toe design. When you completed the activities in a row you may decide to be finished. Or you may decide to keep going and complete more activities.

If you were a Native American would you rather live on the Plains, in the Southwest, or in the Eastern Woodlands? Write a page explaining your choice.	List three "gifts" of the Native Americans. Write a page describing how they were used "then" and a comparison on how we use them today. (Think food, clothing, games, etc.)	Write directions for how the Plains Indians made pemmican. Illustrate your directions.
Create a Southwestern sand painting. In order to make your creation accurate make sure to research how and why the medicine healers used this art form. Write a page explaining the history.	Make a Native American dish. Share the recipe and the food with the class.	Create a Venn Diagram comparing your life with the life of a Native American child.
Create a short story using Native American sign language or pictures. Tell your story to the class. Include a written copy of your story.	Go to the Kings Park student webpages on Native Americans http://fcps.edu/KingsParkES/student%20pages/indians/quiz.htm and take the quiz	Using KIDPIX or another drawing program, think about what Native American homes looked like. If you were a Native American living in an arctic area, draw what your home might look like. Think about the natural resources.
