

Announcements 2/6

All students:

Congrats to the swim team's Karina Kolb, Jordan Parry, Alex Hunter and Alyssa McGarry for breaking the school 200 free relay record at Regionals. An additional record was broken by Jordan Parry in the 100 fly. Great job Bruins!

Mr. and Ms. Bruin

Attention Lake Braddock students, your Technology Student Association chapter will be sponsoring a book drive for the American Cancer Society in conjunction with the St. Jude's Children's Hospital. Please donate gently used books to your sub schools. The book drive will be held during February 13 - February 17. For any questions you can come by room B117 and speak to Ms. Roberts.

Support DECA and the fashion marketing students by donating jeans to the Aeropostale Teens for Jeans campaign!!! All donated jeans will be given to homeless kids and teenagers. You can drop off jeans of any size and any brand at all subschools, any marketing class, HS guidance, or the Main Office. This campaign will end on Feb 12. Thanks for your support!!!

Come join our 5,000 pound challenge. Bring your workout clothes, sneakers, water and a towel up to Mr. Morgan's room, B-231, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Middle school students:

Eighth grade students who have made it into the semifinalist pool in the Thomas Jefferson admissions process need to turn in their Counselor Information Sheets to Mrs. Weaver in the Middle School Counseling Office as soon as possible. The deadline for submitting the Student Information Sheet to Mrs. Weaver is Tuesday, February 14th by the end of the school day. No forms will be accepted after that time.

High school students:

The senior class will be selling valentine candy grams during all high school lunches.

Attention Rising Seniors: Today is your mandatory meeting with your counselor during 1st period, 7:25 a.m. or 8:10 a.m., in different locations per the letter you received from your English teacher.

The Herpetology Club will meet today in room A201 at 2:30. This month's topic: VERNAL POOLS and the Critters that Live There presented by guest speaker and Club Sponsor Mark Khosravi.

Attention all Key Club Members: There will be a meeting tomorrow. We will have our officer elections and start our new project Pennies for Patients.

There will be a Japanese Club meeting on Tuesday.

Anyone interested in trying out for the girl's lacrosse team, there will be an Interest Meeting, Thursday at 230 in room C106.

Alfred Street Baptist Church is hosting its HBCU College Festival. The festival is Saturday, Feb. 18 from 9 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at TC Williams High School. Some colleges will have on-site admission and/or applications fees waived. You can obtain information about financial aid, and some scholarships will be given away to students. There will also be seminars and performances from the Howard University drumline and the Virginia State University choir. In addition, there will be an ongoing mini-session called "Kicking it in the Corner" where students can get the 411 about the real college experience. Students should register for the festival at www.ASBCHBCU.org. Register today, come prepared, and arrive early. Please post the flier on the attached website or make students aware of this event.

Attention seniors! Looking for scholarship opportunities? Stop by the Career Center and see Mrs. Edwards she has several scholarships for all types of students. Athletic, Students who have great need, Eagle Scouts, Future teachers and many more. Don't wait stop by today!!!!!!