

Announcements 5/13

Middle school students, return either your spring pictures or money to your third period teacher.

ATTENTION SENIORS: Don't be left out. Join the party and register for your All Night Graduation Party. Last year over 90 percent of the class attended. There will be great prizes including a $500 cash prize and college dorm items. You can make a Rock Band Video, do the Bungee run or Dual Sports equalizer. Eat from the chocolate fountain or omelet station, and don't forget to bring your bathing suit. If you haven't reserved your ticket for the All Night Grad Party, stop by the PTSA table at lunch tomorrow. Tickets are $65. Class of '09 – It's Your Time!

The Guitar 2 and Guitar Ensemble groups will present a spring concert in the Little Theater on Thursday at 7 p.m. Admission is $3 at the door.

The next Key Club meeting will take place on Thursday in the Lecture Hall starting @ 2:30 PM. Besides installing the new club officers, food and drink will be presented for this end-of-the-year social.

The Key Club is selling lollipops for $1.00 during the month of May. You can purchase one of the many lollipops available in room, H215.

Through today the sophomore class in connection with the PTSA will be holding a contest during all lunches to win some really great prizes! Tickets for the contest are $1 a piece.

Attention members of the Asian American Student Association: we will hold elections today in room C222.

How many states does El Salvador have? If you don't know the answer, come to the Cultural Exchange on Friday to find out! If you do know the answer, then you are one step closer to becoming knowledgeable about the cultures behind the diversity in our school. This is merely one of many interesting facts you will learn from coming to the Cultural Exchange and International Show. Tickets are being sold during all lunches for $3 in the cafeteria. Tickets will not be sold at the door. Teachers, this event is for you also! Please come see your students and enjoy yourselves as well. The answer to yesterday's question was Weiner Schnitzel.

Sports

Good Luck to the Varsity Track Team as they compete in the District Championship tonight and tomorrow night at T.C. Williams.

Congratulations to the Girls Varsity Soccer Team for beating Hayfield 6 to 1 moving onto the next round of Districts.

The Varsity Softball team played great games against West Springfield and Lee this weekend winning 13-1 and 14-0. Good job girls!

The Junior Varsity Spring sports banquet will be tonight from 7-8:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre.
