Middle school students, return either your spring pictures or money to your third period teacher.

ATTENTION SENIORS: Don't be left out. Join the party and register for your All Night Graduation Party. Last year over 90 percent of the class attended. There will be great prizes including a $500 cash prize and college dorm items. You can make a Rock Band Video, do the Bungee run or Dual Sports equalizer. Eat from the chocolate fountain or omelet station, and don't forget to bring your bathing suit. If you haven't reserved your ticket for the All Night Grad Party, stop by the PTSA table at lunch today. Tickets are $65. Class of '09 – It's Your Time!

The Guitar 2 and Guitar Ensemble groups will present a spring concert in the Little Theater tonight at 7pm. Admission is $3 at the door.

The next Key Club meeting will take place today in the Lecture Hall starting @ 2:30 PM. Besides installing the new club officers, food and drink will be presented for this end-of-the-year social.

The Key Club is selling lollipops for $1.00 during the month of May. You can purchase one of the many lollipops available in room, H215.

Attention members of the Asian American Student Association: we will hold elections today in room C222.

What year did Somalia gain independence from Britain and Italy? If you don't know the answer, come to the Cultural Exchange on Friday! If you do know the answer, then you are one step closer to becoming knowledgeable about the cultures behind the diversity in our school. This is merely one of many interesting facts you will learn from coming to the Cultural Exchange and International Show this coming Friday. For students, tickets are being sold during all lunches for $3 in the cafeteria. Tickets will not be sold at the door. Teachers, this event is for you also! Please come see your students and enjoy yourselves as well. The answer to yesterday's question was: 15 states
