Friday Night Lights

Why should YOU take Sociology?

- Sociology is fun!
- If you took Psychology and liked it, then you'll love Sociology. The two classes are best friends.
- You'll gain a better insight into your own social relationships and social environment.
- You'll get to watch several sociological films such as The Pursuit of Happyness and Friday Night Lights
- You get to study sports in detail and learn why they are so important within American culture.

- You get to work on fun projects like the Urban Legend Story Book and the Fads of the New Millennium Poster.
- Sociology is offered as a major in college, so you get a first glance at what it involves.
- You get the opportunity to share your thoughts and opinions on topics like the death penalty, human cloning, and corporal punishment.
- You have a stress free class to help balance out any AP classes your taking.
