

You're invited to join us for

International Night

at Lane Elementary

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd

Please share with the Lane community a country that you know well:

- Your home country
- A country you've lived in, visited, or are interested in
- The country your ancestors came from
- A city or state in the U.S. that you are familiar with.

You can share by participating in as many of these traditions from your country as you'd like:

Food – “Finger food” only please; small portions of food that can easily be eaten with your fingers

Music and Dance – sing a song, play an instrument, perform a dance (maximum length: 3 minutes)

Cultural Display – create a display (of arts and crafts, pictures, historical information, books, posters, money, etc.) about your country

Native Costume – show off your cultural heritage by dressing in colorful clothes from your country for our “Parade of Nations” fashion display (Please note: the Parade will be for children only)
