

“Friend’s again?” Jenna asked.
“Friends!” Shawn replied.

Finally, Shawn and Jenna’s friends forced Shawn and Jenna to talk it out.

“I really didn’t mean that I had a crush on you. I only wanted to say that I appreciated your friendship,” Jenna explained.

“I’m sorry for avoiding you and not listening to what you had to say,” Shawn replied.

Now the two friends are over their argument because of their unbreakable bond of friendship.

Shawn and Jenna were the best of friends. Then one day, Jenna sent Shawn an e-mail saying something that scared Shawn.

Shawn decided to avoid Jenna for a while. He was embarrassed to talk to her.

More tension grew between the once great friends. After a while, Jenna cornered Shawn.

“Why won’t you talk to me?” Jenna yelled.

“Shawn, wait up!” Jenna yelled down the hall.

“I was afraid of what else you would say!” Shawn shot

“Shawn, I really like you,” Jenna said in her e-mail. “Jenna, I never knew you thought of me this way,” Shawn wrote back.

Shawn just sped up to get away and get to his next class before she caught up with him.

“I can’t believe you said that, Shawn!”

They stomped away from each other.
