

Tina and Melissa both run into each other in the hallway. Melissa thinks of an evil plan and bumps into her on purpose. "Thump!" and all of Tina's books scatter around the hallway. Melissa walks away with a smirk on her face and whispered, "Hehe!" Tina gives her an evil stare and growls.

After a week, both Melissa and Tina cooled off from each other and started to miss each other. Later they bump into each other again at recess. At the exact same time, both Tina and Melissa shouted, "I'm sorry!" and started laughing.

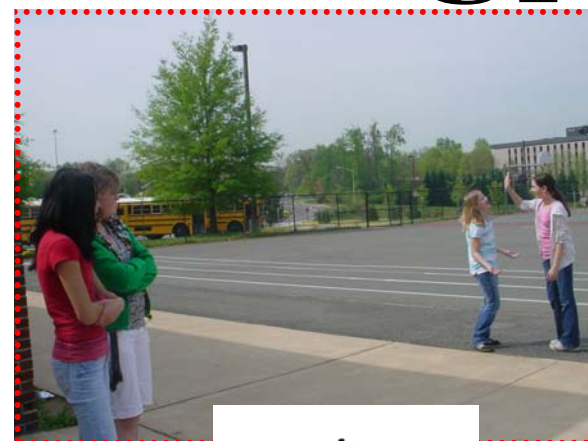

The two best friends made up and hugged each other. And this shows that no matter what happens, true friends will always be with you no matter what.

LG Diaries

Split

UP!

Prepared by
Dina and Kathy
Multimedia Productions
Luther Jackson Middle School

"Hey, Melissa!" Tina said.
"Hi! Haven't talked to you in awhile. What do you want to do?" replied Melissa. Tina says, "Umm...let's..." "Hey, Tina!" interrupted Lily, "Let's go play! Come on, hurry up!" Lily then pulled Tina away, and Melissa was all by herself on the blacktop. She gets angry at Tina for ditching her and stomps away.

Tina tries to apologize the next day at school.

"Hey, Melissa. I'm sorry about leaving you yesterday," said Tina.

Melissa looks at her with an angry stare and exclaimed, "Whatever, I don't care!"

"Melissa, I really am sorry!" Tina replied.

"I don't care! Don't talk to me!" cried Melissa, and she walked away.

Tina is really upset about losing one of her best friends. She is not socializing, she's always in a bad mood, and she eats very little during lunch. After a couple of days Tina gets upset at Melissa because she still hasn't forgiven her.

