

10.29.07

Dear Rakeb,

I admire the way that you always keep your mind focused on your project, no matter what it is. You could be anchoring on LJTV and maybe you or the other anchor messes up. You learn from the mistake, you put it behind you, and you look ahead to the future. Like when I messed up, you didn't hold it against me. You helped me realize what I did and I learned from that..

You've shown me how to be serious about mostly everything, and find the bright side to everything too. You've shown me how to not be afraid of anything anymore. You've helped me to become the strong person I am today. I don't know what I would do without you here to help me get through everything. I would be so lost without your friendship. I would probably fall to pieces if it weren't for you and all of our friends (including Reggie).

Thank you. Love you.

Love, Helen