Section 2: V.I.P. Teen Summer Program Policies and Procedures

Eligibility for V.I.P. Teen Summer Programs: Children who are residents of Fairfax County or Fairfax City, and are between 6th (entering fall of 2009) and 9th grades, are invited to participate. This program is designed for middle school to early high school-age children. Individuals may register at any time during the program session but will be subjected to a waitlist if a program meets its sixty-student maximum program capacity.

Medical Emergency: Camp employees have permission, in the event I cannot be reached readily in an emergency, at my expense to contact our family physician, and/or utilize the most convenient rescue squad vehicle or ambulance to transport my child to the nearest hospital.

Permission: I hereby grant permission for my child to participate in any or all of the programs, special events, walking and bus trips, including swimming, sponsored by the camp. A weekly calendar of activities will be distributed.

Photo Release: By signing this form, I give permission for my child to be photographed and/or videotaped for use in publicizing FCPS/CRS programs and services. Youth registration information provided to the VIP camp is public record and as such may be released under the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (VFOIA) unless the parent/guardian specifically requests that this information not be released. Please check here ___ if you do not grant the camp permission to release your child's registration information.

Information: In accordance with the Virginia Privacy Protection Act of 1976, the requested information will be used to coordinate activities of this agency. I understand that some of the information contained in this form may be released to persons who request such information in accordance with the requirements of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (VFOIA), VA. Code §2-2-3705. As this statement indicates, not all information the camp collects is subject to availability under the VFOIA.

Behavioral Issues: If the actions of a participant may cause injury to other participants or staff, camp staff reserves the right to deny his/her continuation in the program. If property is stolen, destroyed or damaged, payment may be required to pay for replacement or repairs. Please do not bring any valuables (to include iPods, cell phones, cameras or other electronic devices) to camp.

Participation: V.I.P. is a structured recreation program. Parents may pick their children up at any portion of the day. The coming and going of participants is the responsibility of the parents. Should a child leave the center for any reason, a parent will be contacted and he/ she is no longer the responsibility of the camp staff.

Parental Responsibilities: Transportation to and from the camp is the responsibility of the parent/guardian. Working parents must have alternative transportation arrangements in case of emergency, illness, or disciplinary problems. The program does not open until 8 a.m. and ends at 4 p.m. Parents are responsible for providing lunch for their child(ren) unless otherwise notified. Transportation from VIP camps to CRS teen center will be available upon request from a parent.

Liability: On behalf of my child, I recognize that there are risks inherent to participation in camp activities and agree to hold harmless FCPS/CRS, its officers, employees, and volunteers from any and all claims from bodily injury and/or property damage which result from my child's participation in any and all activities sponsored by the said Department.

I certify that I have read and understand all policies and procedures associated with the operation of the V.I.P. Teen Summer Camp program.

- The child does not meet the eligibility criteria for the program.

Management of Behavior

Behavior Guidance and Management

From time to time the V.I.P. Summer Teen program staff must take actions to resolve a problem that is disruptive to the program and other participants. Behavior guidance requires very specialized skills.

We appreciate your support as staff try to find a solution that promotes non-disruptive behavior and allows your child to participate without incident in the activities. Staff members use a proactive approach to meet the needs of the children by planning age and ability appropriate activities, selecting a variety of play and recreation activities, discussing the needs of the children with their parents, and evaluating the entire environment. The safety of the participants and staff is of paramount concern.

We, the undersigned, have read and understand the Rules of Conduct, which includes the requirement that the coming and going of participants are the responsibility of the parents, and will strive to follow and uphold them, to maintain a safe and enjoyable V.I.P. Summer program for all.
