

French 1 Course Objectives

Below is a list of the skills you will acquire this year in French. At the end of the year, you will be able to do the following functions in French.

Directions: at the end of each quarter, check how well you are able to do each skill in French.

	SOMETIMES	USUALLY	ALWAYS
I. I am able to socialize
I can greet people and say goodbye
I can ask how people are and tell them how I feel
I can extend, accept, and refuse invitations
I can identify and introduce people
II. I am able to exchange information
I can ask someone's name and age and give my own
I can ask for & give information about school
I can ask for & give information about food
I can describe and characterize a person
I can express a need
I can make plans and arrange to meet someone (I can tell time, ask where to meet, etc.)
III. I am able to express feelings &amp; emotions
I can express preferences
I can express how much I like or dislike something
I can inquire the likes and dislikes of others
IV. I am able to express attitudes and opinions
I can agree and disagree with another
I can ask for and express opinions
I can advice against something
V. I am able to persuade
I am able to make or accept suggestions
I am able to turn down suggestions and make excuses
I can make a recommendation
I can ask for, give, or refuse permission
I can make, accept, or decline requests
I can tell someone what to do
I can offer, accept, or refuse food

