

Mission

Oakton High School strives to be recognized as a school of honor. Students, teachers, staff and parents uphold high moral values focused upon fostering a love of learning and pride in individual accomplishment. Oakton students will gain an understanding that giving their word has real meaning. To avoid compromising their values of integrity and honesty, students recognize the importance of communication with their teachers.

First Offense

- a. Teacher informs appropriate administrator using the referral process.
- b. The teacher informs the parents by phone call.
- c. The student receives a zero on the graded assignment that gave rise to the Honor Code violation.
- d. The student, student's parents/guardians, teacher(s), counselor and administrator will meet to discuss the situation.
- e. If the student is in an honor society, he or she is put on probation for a period of time depending on the honor society's membership rules.

Second Offense

a-d consequences from First Offense above will be carried out

- a. Coaches and sponsors of any extracurricular activity that the student is involved in are notified.
- b. The student is recommended for dismissal from membership of honor societies based on the due-process procedure of that honor society.
- c. The student will not be invited to become a member of an honor society for one calendar year.
- d. The student may not run for Student Advisory Council, Student Government Association or class office or apply for the Leadership class for one calendar year.
- e. The student will be issued one day of Saturday School.

Third and All subsequent Offenses

a-d consequences from First Offense above will be carried out

- Coaches and sponsors of any extracurricular activity in which the student is involved are notified.
- The student can receive up to five days of out-of-school suspension and/or suspension from all extra-curricular and co-curricular activities.

All violations are recorded in the student's SASI file. Offenses are all per one school year. Offenses will be reset at the beginning of the next school year.