October 23, 2009

Dear Parents/ Guardians and Students:

October 26-30, 2009 is Red Ribbon Week. This is a nationwide effort to bring awareness to students about the harmful effects of drugs, alcohol, and destructive decisions. Here at Olde Creek we will be having a spirit week to help remind students to make positive life choices. Below is the list of theme days.

- Monday: It's Red Ribbon Week! (Wear Red)
- Tuesday: Dreams and Hugs are Better Than Drugs (Pajama day)
- Wednesday: Team Up Against Drugs! (Wear sports outfits, team jerseys, etc (no cleats))
- Thursday: Put a Cap on Drugs! (Hat day)
- Friday: Lei off Drugs (Hawaiian theme day)

Thank you for your participation!

Sincerely,

Tawny C. Desjardins
School Counselor
