

Got Words?

sign up for Mr. Harris'
Creative Writing One
Creative Writing Two
*Advanced Creative Writing

2007-2008

Features of the Class

- Learn the crafts of fiction, poetry, and playwriting!
- Develop revision and critiquing skills!
- Share your work in a supportive atmosphere!
- Read and discuss works by contemporary writers!
- Learn about the lives of great writers!
- Publish your work regularly in The Slushpile!
- *Participate in the creation of Carousel, Robinson's Literary Magazine!
- Quarterly Coffeehouse!
- Write, write, write!
- Open to grades 9-12!

For more information see Mr. Harris in Room 405 or email tcharris@fcps.edu

Testimonials

Creative Writing is a great class for aspiring writers; it allows you to hone your writings talent by hearing the input of other readers.”

Creative Writing offers students an opportunity to explore the vast worlds embedded in our minds. Unlike math, science, or beating poems with a bat in English, creative writing allows students to unveil their own way of thinking.”

“This class gives you time to break away from IB classes & math & all that other stuff and just let out every random thought or emotion on paper.”

“Creative Writing is a very chill class. It always has a relaxing atmosphere and is stress free. Students are all very creative; there is no limit to what you can explore in writing.”

“The reason I like this class is because it helped me with my other classes. As I continued to write in CW, my vocabulary and writing skills got me more A’s on essays and other papers.”

“Creative Writing is my favorite part of my day. I feel like I really know everyone in my class. After a couple weeks of sharing ideas and opinions, we all became friends.”

“Creative Writing is a good class for anyone. You can improve your writing skills while having a good time.”

“Creative Writing is a class where you can be yourself.”

“Not only has my writing improved, but I am more confident in sharing my work and trying new styles of writing.”

“In Creative Writing I have the power to reflect my life through words.”

“The feedback on your writing is amazing; you get so many perspectives that sometimes stories even spring out of stories.”

“I found out so much about my own writing style and voice. This class has given me inspiration!”

“An escape from the normal work day, a diverse ride into writing you will never forget. It will affect you for years to come.”

“Creative Writing gives you a place to write and share your writing in a safe environment, a place where you can get feedback from a room full of writers and really improve your writing.”

“This is the most awesome class available. I’ve discovered that school can actually be fun and enjoyable, and I now have a purpose for showing up.”

“Explore your full potential; find out what is at the end of your pen.”

“I fell like this is the only class that I can really relax, take a deep breath, and actually write.”