

Why study French?

-  It's a global language, spoken on 5 continents by 200 million people.
-  Knowledge of French can open the door to incredible fashion, cinema, literature, art, music, and gourmet food
-  Many international careers in trade or government require knowledge of French
-  French is an official language of the UN, the Olympics, and the European Union
-  France is the world's most visited tourist destination. Learn French and see why!
-  40- 50% of English vocabulary is derived from French, making this beautiful language very accessible

French, the language of romance

French at Robinson

-  Offered in grades 8-12; levels 1-IB2
-  In-class activities include skits, meals, games, contemporary topics
-  French Club activities: holiday celebrations, films, games, holiday concert, Francophone culture sessions, and lots of delicious food
-  French honor society: service opportunities, social events
-  New! French students created the foreign language Olympics
-  Opportunities for field trips and foreign travel
-  Learn French at Robinson and speak one of the most beautiful languages in the world!