

GOOD MORNING ROBINSON
TODAY is Wednesday the 1st of February

General

Agenda books are still available in all sub schools and the main office and they are now half price ($3.00 each)!!!

Calling all Black History buffs: The Minority Students of Robinson club is sponsoring a Black History Knowledge Bowl on Friday Feb 17th at 7pm in Davala Hall. Do you know the answer to: What artist is featured on 2008's "Tha Carter III" album? See Mrs. Hicks in Room C107 if you know!

Attention all math scholars: The Math Department, and the Robinson Academic Boosters, will be sponsoring the AMC 10 and AMC 12 Math exams. The exams will be Tuesday, February 7th. This is a very challenging math examination and scholarship program for top math students across the nation. If you are up to the challenge, talk to your math teacher for more information.

Do you volunteer? Robinson recognizes students for service to the community. Students may wear a Service Learning Cord at graduation as a symbol of their dedication to making a difference in the community. Hours may be earned on one activity or over multiple activities and your service hour record is cumulative over your high school career. For more information, check out your class Blackboard site on 24/7, talk to your guidance counselor, or see Mrs. Caley in B104.

You may only preorder a yearbook until April 13. We have already sold more books than we did last year at this time and last year we sold out. Don't miss out on getting your copy of the 2012 Above and Beyond. The theme this year is "Like Nothing Else" and so is the yearbook. You don't want to miss out.

Attention freshmen, sophomores, and juniors! Are you interested in going to college? Do you need help navigating the process? If so, consider joining the college partnership program (CPP). We can help you! For more information, visit Ms. Nute or Ms. Smith in sub school 10.

Looking for a good deal on movie tickets? On Monday, January 30th from 5 pm until closing, representatives for the 2012 All Night Grad Party will be selling ticket deals at University Mall Theatres and Fair City Mall Theatres in the lobby. You are able to purchase a movie ticket, small popcorn and small drink at University Mall Theatres for $7.00 and at Fair City Mall Theatres for $12.00. Proceeds will support the Senior All Night Grad Party! Don't miss this great deal!"

Hey, students! Do you need help with English work: writing essays, reading, or anything else? If so, you're in luck. The National English Honor Society has outstanding FREE tutors available during RAISE to help you. If you're interested in working with a tutor, tell your English teacher or contact Dr. French in room C106.

Any student interested in singing next year in the Robinson Choral Department should come to an informational meeting on Thursday February 2nd at 2:30 in the chorus room.

During this meeting you will be able to find out about the choral program and all of the different options available to anyone who would like to sing. For more information see Mr. Horanski in the chorus room and visit www.robinsonsings.org We welcome anyone who has a good attitude, is willing to work hard, and wants improve their singing skills!

Attention students – if you are interested in taking an AP exam for a class that you are not enrolled in, please see Ms. Nute in ss10 or Ms. Murphy in ss11 by Friday, March 9th.

Attention talented diverse beautiful people of Robinson! LASA is sponsoring a International Show! Can you sing? Dance? Or model? Come to AUDTIONS! Wednesday February 1st in Davala Hall after school. Please bring your own CD and all members of your group. Compete for a prize! All nationalities are welcome. Were you planning on participating in the annual Gatorball tournament?! If so, make sure you have your $30 and ALL of your forms turned in by February 7th! You can drop your forms off in room E109 during 3rd period.

Clubs & Organizations

The Minority Students of Robinson Meetings will be in the 1st and 2nd Thursdays of the month in room C107. For those interested in joining our group, everyone is welcome!

Career Center

Did you apply to Virginia Tech? Consider applying for the Pamplin Leader Award - a one year academic merit based scholarship ($1,000) open to any student who applies to Virginia Tech. Each public high school in Virginia can nominate 3 students. Virginia Tech will make the final selection. A letter of recommendation is required in addition to the application. An email with an attached application was sent to all Seniors. Applications are due in the career center by 2:25 pm on Friday January 27, 2012. Questions? See Mrs. Doyle in the career center

Seniors

Seniors, are you an athlete or did you participate in a VHSL academic activity? Check out the 2 VHSL scholarships posted on Family Connection. Athletes should also look up the NVADACA scholarships on Family Connection. These are nominated scholarships, which means that Robinson can nominate 1 student for each award. Applications are available only in the career center and are due by 2:25pm on February 15.

Seniors, are you attending a Virginia College or University? Want to be a teacher and have financial need? Apply for the Virginia PTA Scholarship. Application is on Family Connection and is due in the career center by 2:45pm on February 15.

Seniors, do you want to be paid for your good deeds or involvement in Robinson activities? Robinson's PTSA offers Seniors the opportunity to apply for two scholarships: Elaine Heenan Memorial Scholarship for Volunteerism and the Friends

Scholarship for involvement in activities at Robinson Applications can be found on Family Connection and the PTSA website. All applications are due to the career center by 2:45pm on April 13th.

If you wish to order the senior supplement for the yearbook which will have graduation and prom coverage as well as superlatives, they will only be available for $5 with the purchase of a yearbook until April 13. After that time, senior supplements will cost $10. Buy yours now!

Sports

Are you planning to try out for Girls' Tennis? Do you want more information to make a decision? You should plan to attend the interest meeting on Feb. 6th at 2:30 in room 513 (the driver's ed room). Hope to see you there!
