

SLHS Morning Announcements

Friday, November 6, 2009

Due to vision and hearing screening, the Health Room (aka Clinic) is closed today. Students should report to the Main Office for daily medications or if they have an emergency. Students who are sick should report to their subschools to call home.

FBLA students going to Baltimore must report to Ms. Lukas' room at 9 a.m.

Tonight, we want to see the visitors' side of the Stone Bridge football stadium awash with Seahawk Blue and Green. With your confidence, support and enthusiasm we know the team will bring home a victory!

Chorus, band and orchestra students chosen to apply for the Tri-M Honor Society: all applications – without exception – are due today by 3 p.m.

All chorus students must see Ms. G with forms or money for tomorrow's District auditions at Flint Hill. Be sure to take your music with you to the audition and double check your assigned time on the list in the chorus room or in Ms. G's email. Good luck to everyone who's auditioning.

Both Mr. Ravenstahl's and Ms. Finley's Monday night TOK classes will be meeting at the Greater Reston Arts Center at 5 p.m. on Monday night.

Over the next few days, there will be a variety of activities designed to pay tribute to Veterans of the United States Armed Forces. Today, classes are invited to participate in the Patriotic Poster Contest in the Cafeteria during 3rd period. Next Monday through Wednesday, there will be formal flag-raising ceremonies at 7 a.m. and daily programs in the Lecture Hall from 9-10:25. These programs range from question and answer sessions to award presentations. We urge everyone to get involved with this salute to those who serve and have served our country. Please contact Mr. Bob Smith for more information.

Speech and Debate will meet after school today in Room 228.

There will be a Science Olympiad interest meeting today for all returning and new members. It's in Mr. Ferzoco's room, 232, which is in the biology hallway near the Senior locker bay.

There will be a mandatory informational meeting on Monday, November 9th, for all boys interested in trying out for basketball. Please be in Health Room 145 by 2:20.

If you play guitar, want to play guitar and/or would be interested in taking guitar as an elective class during the next school year, check out the new SLHS Guitar Club. You'll get a chance to meet other guitarists and discuss guitars, music, playing techniques and more. The first meeting is next Wednesday at 2:15 in the Band Room. See Mr. Kulikosky in Room 444 for more information.

New and returning swimmers and divers must attend a brief meeting in the gym (visitors' side) next Wednesday right after school.

All girls interested in playing Seahawks Lacrosse are invited to meet next Wednesday in the Lecture Hall after school.

All students are invited to submit written or visual art pieces to Portfolio, the South Lakes literary magazine. Submission forms are in each subschool.

It's JROTC Cookie Dough time! Make your friends and family think you can actually bake -- just order a bucket of ALL NATURAL, delicious cookie dough from a JROTC Cadet and it will be delivered in time for the Winter Break. The sale runs through November 23rd.

Word of the Day

MODICUM

A moderate or small amount

“When he crossed the street in a severe snow storm without stopping to look for traffic – clad in shorts and flip-flops – Richard demonstrated that he did not have a modicum of common sense.”

Quote of the Day

“Don’t accept your dog’s admiration as conclusive evidence that you are wonderful.”
