

W.T. Woodson
Summer Institute
August 18th and 19th, 2009

WHAT?

The Summer Institute (formerly called the AP Institute) is a study skills workshop that will focus on such topics as reading, writing and reasoning skills; math and science skills; note-taking and test taking skills; critical thinking skills; time management; academic integrity; and general strategies for success in high school courses. It is also an opportunity to meet with a variety of teachers and learn more about different classes at Woodson. For freshman students, it will be a chance to get acquainted with some teachers at Woodson and obtain the skills necessary to be successful in all courses.

WHO?

The institute is open to anyone who will be attending Woodson in 2009-2010. We will have a separate introductory session for incoming freshman students. In addition, there will be a session about Woodson for parents of all students.

WHEN?

The Summer Institute will be held on Tuesday, August 18th and Wednesday, August 19th from 5:30 pm to 9:00 pm.

HOW CAN I PARTICIPATE?

The application may be completed online using the link found on the W.T. Woodson home page, www.fcps.edu/woodsonhs.

Applications can also be found in the guidance department, and may be completed and returned to the WTW student services office, c/o Martha Rodeheaver – Summer Institute or mailed to Martha Rodeheaver – Summer Institute, 9525 Main Street, Fairfax, VA 22031.

Any questions can be directed to Martha Rodeheaver at martha.rodeheaver@fcps.edu.

Applications must be received by Friday, July 24th
