

WHAT FAMILIES EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS NEED TO KNOW

- Children and youth experiencing homelessness have a right to attend school.
- You do not need a permanent address to enroll your child in school.
- Children and youth experiencing homelessness can stay in their school of origin or enroll in any public school that students living in the same attendance area are eligible to attend, according to their best interest.
- Schools must provide you with a written explanation if a placement dispute occurs and you may appeal their decision. (Contact the homeless liaison.)
- Your child cannot be denied school enrollment just because school records or other enrollment documentation are not immediately available.
- Your child may have the right to transportation services to and from the school of origin, if determined feasible.
- Your child has the right to participate in extracurricular activities and all federal, state, or local programs for which he or she is eligible. Transportation may not be available for these activities.
- Unaccompanied youth have these same rights. (Contact the homeless liaison.)

DEFINITION OF HOMELESSNESS

Anyone, due to a lack of housing, who lives in inadequate or temporary settings, such as:

- In emergency or transitional shelters
- In motels, hotels, trailer parks, campgrounds, abandoned in hospitals, awaiting foster care placement
- In cars, parks, public places, bus or train stations, abandoned buildings
- Doubled up with relatives or friends
- In these conditions and is a migratory child or youth.

Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) is committed to providing support for our students who are experiencing homelessness. We understand the challenges facing homeless students and have programs in place to make certain that these students have the resources necessary to obtain a successful education. FCPS has a homeless liaison responsible for ensuring that homeless children are identified, enrolled and receive equitable access to high quality education and support services. Parents should contact the homeless liaison at 571-423-4332 for assistance.
