Family Media Agreement: K-5

When your child begins to use the Internet, it is important to have a conversation about when and how they use it and what they use it for. This Family Media Agreement is one tool you can use to support this conversation.

I will . . .

Stay safe.

☐ I will not give out any private information, such as my full name, date of birth, address, or phone number, without my family’s permission.

☐ I will keep my passwords private and only share them with my family.

☐ I will tell a trusted adult if anyone online makes me feel uncomfortable, sad, or unsafe. I will recognize that my safety is more important to my family than anything else.

Think first.

☐ I will communicate kindly when I use the Internet or my cell phone. I will not tease, embarrass, or bully others.

☐ I know that the Internet is public, and I will respect myself and others when I’m using it.

☐ I will not pretend that I created something that’s not actually my own work.

Stay balanced.

☐ I know that not everything I read, hear, or see online is true.

☐ I will respect my family’s decisions for what I’m allowed to watch, play with, or listen to, and when.

☐ I will continue to enjoy the other activities – and people – in my life.

In exchange, my family agrees to . . .

☐ recognize that media is a big part of my life, even if they don’t always understand why.

☐ talk with me about what worries them and why, before saying “no.”

☐ talk to me about my interests and help me find stuff that’s appropriate and fun.

x___________________________________  x____________________________________
Signed by me      Signed by my parent or caregiver

Adapted from and used with permission of Common Sense, www.commonsense.org