A note on transcriptions:

A line-by-line transcription has been prepared to preserve the integrity and style of the original writing. Modern usages of punctuation and capitalization have been used for the sake of readability. Names of schools were written without uniformity, either through clerk error or because the names of schools changed over time. This transcription has adopted the spellings of Cockrill, Money's Corner, Powell's, River Bend, Thornton's, and Wiehle, spellings which may not match the original writing in every instance but will assist researchers by providing standardization of spelling. Capitalization of school names have also been standardized in this transcription, appearing as Vale School House, Vale School, or School No. 1. Shorthand symbols, unconventional abbreviations, and the various notations of money have been altered, and names, many in abbreviated form as was the fashion of the time period, have been transcribed as they appear with only the addition of necessary punctuation for consistency. Please note that there are sections throughout this book that appear out of sequence as later clerks went back through the records and used blank pages for their own records.

Powell's School appears in this text as both Powells School and Powell's School. As the school was named for long time teacher G. C. Powell and known as "[Mr.] Powell's School," the possessive spelling has been adopted throughout this text. Note that the school name did change over time and officially became known as Powells School. Please refer to the original minute book to view the original clerk spelling.

 George W. Gunnell, Clk

Ida Cockrill appears throughout the original text with her surname consistently spelled Cockrill. Please note, however, the Cockerille name in Fairfax and Loudoun counties is found spelled under several variations to include Cockerill, Cockerille, Cockrille, and Cockerille. There is no Stinecut family (or similar name) in census records for Dranesville or Fairfax County. It is likely this person is Mr. Charles Lewis Stewart who had many children.

December 4, 1895 (January 4, 1896): This meeting was dated December 4, 1895 in the minute book, but it is believed to have actually taken place on January 4, 1896. In the minutes of December 14, 1895, Gunnell stated that the next meeting of the Board would take place on the first Saturday in December (which had already passed - December 7, 1895). It is believed that Gunnell meant to write January 4, 1896 (which was a Saturday). Evidence that the meeting actually took place in January can be seen in the pay warrants. The teachers were issued salary warrants for their third month. The third month of the school year was December.
