1. Meeting called to order at 7:05 pm by Carrie Reynolds.
2. Twenty-three voting members present.
3. Approval of corrected October meeting minutes and November meeting minutes. The October minutes approved without objection. A spelling correction was requested in the November minutes. The November minutes were approved with the correction.
4. Community review: The subcommittee shared the data reviewed during the December meeting and the themes that were identified. The subcommittee provided examples of written comments that both supported and did not support gender combined instruction in grades four through eight.

The full committee discussed the data obtained, the process used to collect data, and the validity of the data.

5. Dr. Michelle Reid answered questions from the committee and listened to concerns from committee members.
6. Committee was divided into small groups and asked to review feedback from community review questions 3-6 prior to the February meeting. Each group was assigned one question to review.
7. There was a request for a representative from FLECAC to participate in an SR&R listening group on January 12, 2023. Do-Quyen Pham and Debra David volunteered to attend.
8. Meeting adjourned at 9:03 pm.
